Associate – Financial Crime & Investigations (80–100% – Geneva)

MANGEAT is expanding its Financial Crime & Investigations team.

If you are a Swiss qualified attorney who is looking for exciting new challenges to further develop your expertise in white-collar crime, let us connect!

We are a growing law firm in Geneva, with a well-established expertise in various and complex legal disciplines (www.mangeat.ch/services).

Our ambition is to be at the forefront of the legal profession. We combine innovative and creative approaches to counselling our Swiss and international clients. In an ever-evolving environment, we are expanding our team by integrating new talents.

Your profile

- You are a Swiss qualified attorney.
 - You already have several years of experience (at least 3 years) in the field of white-collar crime, part of which you have acquired at an international law firm.
 - You have an excellent academic background and, if possible, a LL.M. and/or a postgraduate degree from a leading university.
 - You are fluent in French and English and have a very good knowledge of German. Other languages, such as Arabic, are an advantage.
 - You are curious, eager to learn and self-motivated.
 - You have legal depth with a practical and solution-oriented attitude.
 - You are looking for a growing law firm that is keen to ensure your access to training, mentoring and professional experiences to help you progress in your career.
 - You enjoy teaming with a multi-cultural team of professionals.
 - You are motivated to leverage your skills and knowledge to advise our clients in a challenging and stimulating environment.
 - You are eager to join a team whose expertise is recognized by Legal500 EMEA, Chambers Europe, GIR, and Leaders League.
