

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST IN LAW FIRMS: CAN GENEVA RESIST ADVANCE WAIVERS?

*Clients are increasingly requested to waive ongoing and future conflicts of interest that would normally prevent lawyers from taking on other cases.
Advance waivers are increasingly common, but are they permissible?*

Thursday, 20 October 2016, 6:15 p.m. to 7:45 p.m., followed by cocktail reception
LALIVE, 35 rue de la Mairie, Geneva

Speakers

David Lawson (Bonnard Lawson)

Alain Bruno Lévy (Junod, Muhlstein, Lévy & Puder)

Moderator

Jaime Gallego (LALIVE)

PROGRAMME

- Competing & Inconsistent Ethical Policies in Today's Practice of Law
- The Law and Rules of Deontology in Switzerland on Conflicts of Interest
- Other Jurisdictions' Laws and Ethical Rules on Conflicts of Interest
- Advance Waivers as a Potential Solution
- Enforceability of Advances Waivers of Conflicts of Interest

Please register in advance by 17 October 2016 at

<https://attending.io/events/can-geneva-resist-advance-waivers>

Confirmation of registration on the day will begin at 6pm

ORDRE DES AVOCATS
DE GENÈVE

SECTION DES AVOCATS DE BARREAUX ÉTRANGERS